FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Norfolk's Treasurer and Commissioner of the Revenue Offer Extended Hours for City Decal Season

(Norfolk, Virginia – February 11, 2003) Norfolk's Treasurer, Thomas W. Moss, Jr., and Commissioner of the Revenue, Sharon M. McDonald, today announced that both offices will offer extended hours of operation during peak city decal season.

The offices will be open from 8:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. from Monday, February 10th through Friday, February 14th, and will be open on Saturday, February 15th from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

The deadline to affix city decals on the vehicle windshield is midnight, February 15th. Personal Property tax MUST be paid on the vehicle before a decal will be sold. The City Treasurer sells the city decals and collects personal property taxes. The Commissioner of the Revenue registers, transfers and assesses vehicles.

For additional information, contact the Treasurer's Office at 664-7800, or the Commissioner of the Revenue's Office at 441-2861.
